

SADDLE BROOK TAG NEWS

Franklin School - Long Memorial School- Helen I. Smith School

Bedtime Math Awards

Two fifth grade TAG students are featured in the newest BedTime Math book, How Many Guinea Pigs Can Fit on a Plane? Emily Trainor and Tori Owens from Long School submitted unique questions about math used in every day life. Keep your math minds going daily by downloading the app.

www.BedtimeMath.org

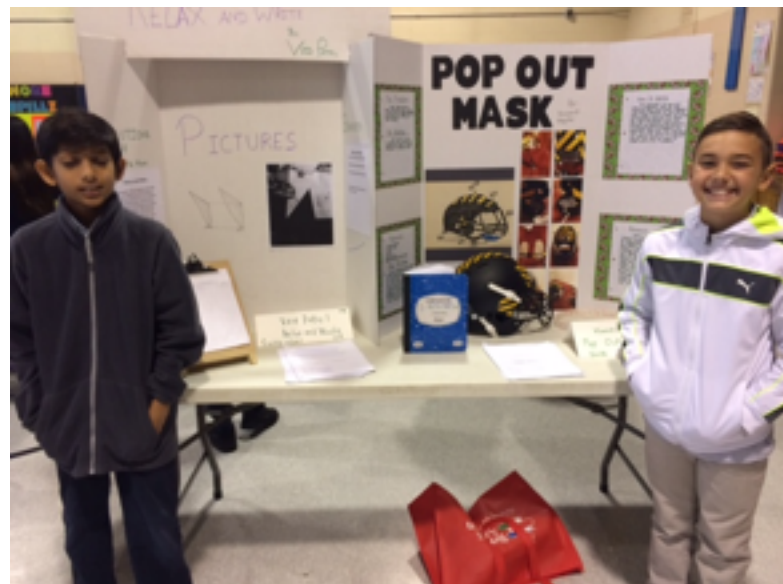

MLS Winners

Several students entered the Major League Soccer: Healthy Habits Contest. Two of the semifinalists are from Saddle Brook. Congratulations to Lindsey Weisner (How to Stay Healthy) and Gia Vierno (Shooting for the Target.)

Eighth Graders as Judges

Eighth grade TAG students took on several leadership roles during their final semester in the program. They facilitated an Invention Convention at Franklin School which involved all three elementary schools. Judges listened to fifth and sixth grade students...

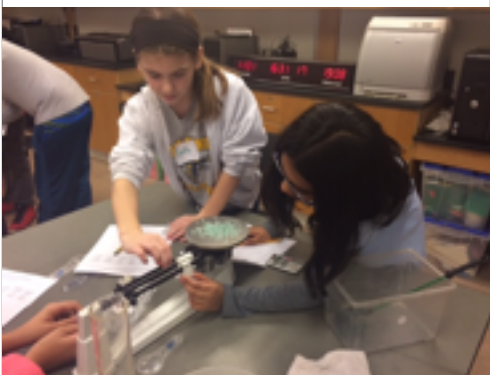

Disney's Moana Challenge

Hands on CSI Workshop at the Meadowlands

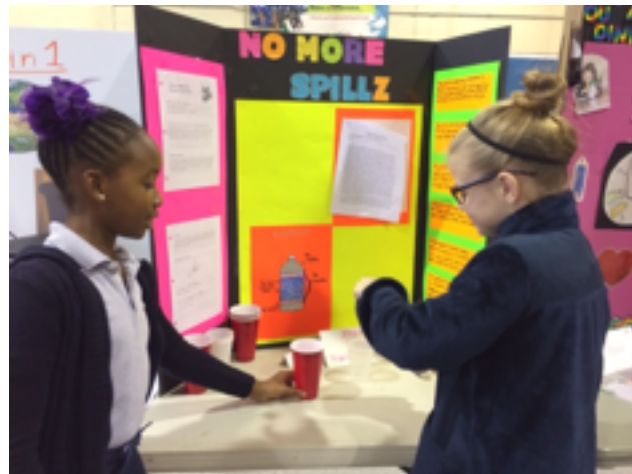

Students analyzed fingerprints to gather data to solve the mystery.

Using a balance beam student investigators measured glass findings on location.

present their innovations or inventions. Students shared their findings in journals and on display boards. Judges awarded students on creativity, practicality and marketability!

From Saddle Brook To Mars Brook

TAG Engineers

